DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 36-42 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. Regarding claim 36, the subject matter, "non-human" as now amended, is not supported by the original Specification and therefore, now constitute New Matter.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 36-42 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Regarding claim 36, it is not clear whether a "non-human weight" is coupled to the fabric portion.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 36-38 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Graves (US Patent 5,433,637).

The device of Graves reads on the claimed limitations including a frame (14), a fabric portion coupled to the frame and extending outwardly from the frame member (18B; fig. 1), at least one buoyancy member (It should be noted that the Examiner takes the position that buoyancy member 22 is coupled to 18B via the combination of 20, 18A and 24) and a non-human weight (12).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 39, 49 and 50 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Hill (US Patent 3,161,897) in view of either Terzain et al (US Patent 4,467,555) or Ueno et al (US Publication 2001/0024294).

Hill teaches most of the elements of the claimed invention, including a frame (30; It should be noted the Examiner considers the area beneath element 30 as the exterior area), a fabric portion (coupled to frame via 50) positioned substantially within a portion of the exterior area (10—fig.3) and at least one buoyancy (26) coupled via 30.

However, Hill fails to teach a non-human weight, a plurality of frame segments and a corrosion resistant frame member. Terzain et al or Ueno et al teaches that it is well known to use a non-human weight with a floatation device. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a non-human weight (i.e., a toy figure or doll) as suggested by Terzain et al or Ueno et al with the device of Hill for the purpose of simulating a human when the device floats on water (Note, page 1, par. 0005 of Ueno et al).

Further, It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to have plurality of frame segments, since it has been held that mere duplication of the essential working parts of a device involves only routine skill in the art. St. Regis Paper Co. v. Bemis Co., 193 USPQ 8. It would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art to make the frame member of Hill with a corrosion resistant material for the purpose of preventing wear of the apparatus.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 29-35 and 43-50 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to the claims have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
